

H. Tucker Graham,
Hampden-Sidney College, Hampden-Sidney, Va.

W. S. Lacy,
Arkansas College,
Batesville, Ark.

J. R. Dobyns,
Southwestern Pres. University, Clarksville, Tenn.

D. M. Douglas,
Pres. College of South Carolina, Clinton,
S. C.

T. P. Junkin,
Daniel Baker College,
Brownwood, Texas.

S. C. Byrd, Chicora College for Women, Columbia, S. C.

An Imperative Call

comes to the Presbyterian Church to-day to go forward in the fundamental work of Christian Education.

THE INSPIRING HISTORY OF THE PAST,

from John Calvin and John Knox to the men and women, who to-day are toiling unselfishly and with untiring zeal for our boys and girls and for the Great Head of the Church, urges this duty.

THE NEEDS OF THIS PRESENT AGE,

with its rationalism and materialism—so occupied with things and time—reveal to us a clear obligation.

THE DEMAND OF THE CHURCH, and of the world for a large increase in the number of trained, efficient leaders, warns us not to be weary in this work.

THE IMMENSE POSSIBILITIES,

wrapped up in the lives of our boys and girls impels the Church to follow them as they must leave the parental roof and to see that with all their getting they get the true wisdom and understanding.

THE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM, of the various states needs, and the wisest leaders are sincerely urging, the Church to continue and develop her colleges.

THE PRESIDENTS OF OUR COLLEGES,

and our schools and seminaries—called by the Church through boards of control, selected by Presbyteries or Synods—are in greatest need of our sympathy and help. Like Paul of old they ask, "Brethren, pray for us!"

MORE STUDENTS FOR OUR COLLEGES

BETTER COLLEGES FOR OUR STUDENTS

What are you doing for this work in your Synod?

The Presbyterian Church in the United States

Department of Christian Education,

Henry H. Sweets, Secretary

122 South Fourth Avenue,

Louisville, Ky.

T. S. Clyce,
Austin College, Sherman, Texas.

E. E. Reed,
Westminster College,
Fulton, Mo.

J. R. Bridges,
Queens College, Charlotte, N. C.

Miss Bessie C. Lemly,
Dean, Belhaven College, Jackson, Miss.

W. B. Morrison,
Oklahoma Pres. College
for Girls, Durant, Okla.

Miss Sallie McLean,
Dean, Belhaven College, Jackson, Miss.

James E. Allen,
Davis and Elkins College, Elkins, W. Va.

W. M. Kemper,
Palmer College and
Academy, DeFuniak
Springs, Fla.

U. B. Currie, Silliman Collegiate Institute, Clinton, La.

J. L. Macmillan,
Stonewall Jackson College, Abingdon, Va.

John James,
Synodical Female College, Fulton, Mo.

Robert H. Adams,
Lewisburg Seminary,
Lewisburg, W. Va.

T. W. Raymond,
Mississippi Synodical
College, Holly Springs,
Miss.

William J. Martin,
Davidson College,
Davidson, N. C.

Tilden Scherer,
King College, Bristol,
Tenn.

C. G. Vardell,
Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs,
N. C.

R. C. Sommerville,
Tex. Pres. College, Milford, Tex.